Geraldine Davies – This Sunday we are saying our goodbyes and best wishes to Geraldine, who on this coming Monday is moving down to Ashford to be near her sisters. Geraldine, along with her late husband Brian, has been part of our church membership for many years. With Brian she was one of six red robed acolytes or servers assisting the priest at the altar during communion services. They lived at a bungalow in Crowhurst which had a large machine workshop where Brian made new keys for the church, and also provided the audio system for the annual outdoor Service of Remembrance. Geraldine, who usually extinguished the candles after the Sunday service will be greatly missed, but we all wish her well in her new location.
