Local Christmas Post - A Christmas card delivery service for addresses within walking distance of the church is planned. More details about the delivery service will be announced in mid-November.
In the meantime, Mothers' Union Christmas cards will be on sale after church starting this Sunday and all through November. By purchasing these cards, you will be supporting the work of the Mothers' Union, which promotes Christian values and supports families and communities. Thank you for your support! Richard and Jenny

Trevor Crowhurst – Trevor was a real village character, born in Lingfield, worshipping at this church since his baptism. He was a long serving bell ringer. He had many sporting interests, was heavily involved with the Lingfield Running Club and Blindley Heath Cricket Club. He also loved to watch ice hockey. Above all he was one of the most caring people you would ever meet, and he will be missed by so many. Richard.
